

Three Harbor Students Win Rotary Scholarships

Three Harbor College students were awarded scholarships at the 13th annual Rotary Scholarship Banquet at the school, which also honored 60 other students for their scholastic achievement.

Dr. Michael O'Brien, president of Lomita Rotary Club, awarded three $100 scholarships sponsored by his group. The Robert Pannel Memorial Scholarship was awarded to David Wood. Roger Daas won the John Ryan Memorial Scholarship for a business administration major and Jeanette Thaw was awarded the vocational scholarship as a nursing major, planning for a career as a registered nurse.

Wood, of 1777 Helmick Avenue, Compton, a pre-law ma-or, hopes to enter law school after his junior year at UCLA to follow a career in the field of foreign affairs and international relations. He is on the President's Honor Roll and is a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma honorary scholastic fraternity and the French Club. He served with the Air Force in Europe before entering Harbor.

Roger Daas, 1036 West 165th Place, Gardena, recipient of the John Ryan Memorial Scholarship, is working for a degree in accounting while supporting a wife and four children, ages 5, 4 and 3 years and a 7-month-old baby. Daas hopes to attend UCLA full time.

Miss Thaw, 1641 Espinosa Circle, Palos Verdes Estates, who previously had been named as the college's "Woman of the Year," plans to attend the San Francisco Medical Center for a baccalaureate program in nursing. She is currently working part time at Los Angeles Harbor General.

The Wilmington Rotary Club, headed by president John Hopkins, was the host club at the banquet. Other participating clubs were Lomita, San Pedro and Carson-Dominguez Rotaries.

Students honored with certificates of achievement on the basis of service and scholarship included members of Spars, women's honorary service group; Tars, men's honorary service group, students on the President's Honor List for maintaining a 3.5 grade average, and members of Alpha Gam-

Major interest of the area has settled on the race for the 32nd Senate Democratic bid with half a dozen strong contenders among the 12 candidates in the race.

TWO OF THE candidates were challenged this week on the basis of residency qualification. Attorney Dudley Gray and Municipal Judge Ralph Dills, both strong contenders for the nomination, were charged with setting up temporary homes in order to meet residence requirements.

The charge, issued by Lloyd Menveg, another leading contender, claims Dills is a resident of the 33rd District in Compton but is using his campaign headquarters as a home address. Similarly, Menveg charged that Gray, a resident of the 25th District on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, is using an apartment address in downtown San Pedro as his home address.

ma Sigma, scholastic honorary fraternity.

Outstanding students nominated by each department were also named. They were George Adams, Rex Bullinger, Roger Daas, Thomas Ferrell, Judith Fisher, Harold Grussmeyer, Janet Hay, Pat Lang, Thomas Maddux, Mrs. Marjorie Nichols, Dominick Pescarolo, James Pickle and Diana Pond.

Also: Reuben Vega, Daniel Sanchez, Joyce Schultz, Mrs. Phyllis Silway, Michael Sokolich, Alice Stukas, Jeanette Thaw, Mrs. Darlene Turner, David Wood and Lowell Zelt.

Menveg asserts that law requires the candidate to be a resident in the district one year before his election.

THE CAMPAIGN was sparked again this week when Gray denied to the Press-Herald that his office was responsible for issuing a statement attributed to him and calling the coroner's inquest system a farce.

"No one has been authorized by me to circulate this document. It does not contain my signature or any other person's signature. It does not represent my viewpoint," Gray said in a statement sent to the Press-Herald last night.

HOWEVER, the Press-Herald was informed by several sources that Gray's supporters were passing out texts of the statement in the area, and the text of the statement obtained by the Press-Herald came through the same channels and in the same form as have all of Gray's statements during the campaign.

Considered by most observers to be a major contender for the nomination in the 32nd is Torrance Councilman David K. Lyman. With a heavy Democratic registration in the District, the Democratic nominee should be an odds-on choice to win the seat in November.

Two Lomita Civic Leaders Join Harold Garvin Drive

Harold Garvin, candidate for State Senator, has appointed Dr. Willard Brown and Reverend Eldon Durham as co-chairman of his campaign in Lomita and Harbor City.

The Rev. Mr. Durham, who has served 16 years as minister in Lomita, expressed enthusiasm for Garvin's candidacy, especially his plans to reduce taxes for homeowners and reform election laws.

"President Johnson presented election reform legislation to Congress last week that could have been taken entirely from Harold's speeches," said Durham.

Dr. Brown, who was a candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction last election, has served as editor of psychology and political science textbooks for Lippincott and McGraw-Hill Publishing companies.

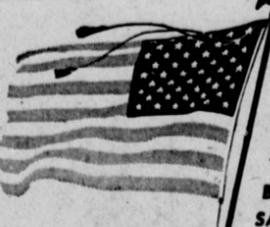

A political science major at University of Southern California, Dr. Brown is founder and twice president of the local chapter of The American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees Union, AFL-CIO. He has been an official delegate to five state and national AFL-CIO conventions and a lifetime member of the National Education Association.

"I believe Garvin is designed for Senator for our area. He is a leading authority on state government, a lifetime and hardworking democrat, and one of the most ethical and high principled men I have ever known in public life," Dr. Brown said.

Dr. Wendell Black, president of Harbor College, is general chairman of the Garvin campaign.
